Annual Meeting

Dear fellow members,

As Pastor Mark mentioned during last week's service, we are having our annual meeting on Sunday, January 24th, after service. We will be approving minutes of the last meeting in November. We will have year-end financials and the annual report for you to review.

We also will be voting to elect representatives for Josephine Home and for our nominating committee. The time required for both obligations is minimal.

Josephine is usually just attendance at an annual dinner and meeting, which may not be in person this year.

The Nominating committee usually takes one or two evening meetings in October.

We will be holding the meeting both as drive-in and in person simultaneously. One thing we learned from the November meeting is that logistically it is very hard to conduct the meetings in this style.

To that end, it would be very helpful if we had a list of people we could present for the membership to vote on as opposed to asking for volunteers at the meeting. So, my ask for all of you is this, if you would be willing to serve in either of these capacities please let us know, before the meeting. You can tell Pastor, myself or email the office. We are still in challenging and changing times. But with God's love and guidance we will get through these times and emerge stronger in faith and in love for our fellow man.

Be well, God Bless,
Dan Norris
